Every Time You Go

Ellie Goulding

Every time you go
Every time you go
It starts with a picture
And it sits in your frame
And we part with a letter
And it ends in my name
It starts with forever
And it ends with a touch
And I know that you're clever
And I don't ask for much
Maybe we forgot all the things we are
We are together
You said I'm arresting
You said I had heat
I really thought that we'd go further
The second time we'd meet
Now I'm tired of trying to keep you
All I want to do is sleep
And perhaps when I'm sleeping
You'll get back on your feet
Maybe we forgot all the things we are
We are together
Wake me up
Wake me up
Stop my fall
Every time you go
Tape me up
Then break me up
Ever so gently
When I'm at my weakest
It's not so hard
Every time you go
I run a mount to meet you
When I knew a storm had come
I felt the rain on your face
And the damage you had done
I know what you're thinking
It will never be the end
And when the storm is over

You won't see me again
Didn't know the price I paid for all the times I stayed
When we were together
Wake me up
Wake me up
Stop my fall
Every time you go
Tape me up
Then break me up
Ever so gently
When I'm my weakest
It's not so hard
Maybe we forgot, are we awake or not?
Maybe we forgot, are we awake or not?
Maybe we forgot, are we awake or not?
Or maybe we forgot
Wake me up
Wake me up
Stop my fall
Every time you go
Tape me up
Then break me up
Ever so gently
When I'm at my weakest
Wake me up
Wake me up
Stop my fall
Every time you go
Tape me up
Then break me up
Ever so gently
When I'm at my weakest
It's not so hard
Every time you go
