Breaking Pangaea

I'll be the sun, I'll be the rain over you.
There's another kind of story she doesn't want to tell.
There's another road to hell, behind the bluer eyes horizon.
Stolen secrets say she knows he's never gonna stay.
I'll be the sun, I'll be the rain over you.
So he sees her, when he sees her,
she doesn't know what it means if the story's just a dream.
So I tell you words, she can't go back.
The story has to end and he knows,
when he sees her running on...
sees her running, sees her running on and on away.
