

Spell

MariÃ© Digby

A spotlight's shining brightly
On my face
And I can't see a thing
And yet I feel you, looking my way

An empty stage
With nothing but this girl
Who's singing this simple melody
And wearing her heart on her sleeve
And right now

[Chorus]
I have you
For a moment I can tell I've got you
Cause your lips don't move
And something is happening
Cause your eyes tell me the truth
I've put a spell over you

Beauty emanates from every word that you say
And capture the deepest thoughts
In the purest and simplest of ways
But you see
I'm not that graceful like you
Nor am I as eloquent
But just a simple melody
Can change the way that you see me
And right now

[Chorus]

All my life I stumble
But up here I am just perfect
Perfect as I'll ever be

[Chorus]
