

Half Wishing

P.J. Pacifico

All quiet on the millenium skyline
My eyelash wish is blown to the unknown
Hearts fall to ashes as the economy crashes
And lucky soldiers are all coming home from warChorus:
 Here I am stepping into the light
 I've been thinking and half wishing
 On my beautiful stars tonight
 Here I go, I must be doing something right
'Cause here I am with you tonightEbb & flow, homemade undertow
 Getting delayed seemed just fine
 The same thing happens before the fall
 Fake best wishes and tired promises
I've heard them allChorusCloser to feeling like your face misleads
 And hiding behind a heart dying to bleed
 Running cannot stop the pain
I stayed put, and fancy meeting me againChorus
