

Eye

Neurosis

Third seed throw down
Visions of serpents cut life
Storm drown suffocated spirits
Regression's avowed, torment's pawn
Life bringing paradoxes of mysteries that
Teach when our lesion sees eye to soul
Will reach mind wars rise, struggle of the will
For soul to defeat the flight song of broken wings
Seeking light blinds
The eye to providence
Clean wall, we are hidden
Rats grow fat in our holes of the past
Transgressions' dawn, grim fate, abdicate
Marching to slaughter soul salvation
Our destiny awaits survival of our wrath
The frigid apparition waits silently transcendent
Life war arise, strength of soul's persistence
Through defeat flight song of broken wings
Deep, deep shining
Silver womb
Clean wall, we are hidden
