

You're So God Damn Beautiful

Burden Brothers

Yes you know my love I'm giving up
I just can't do it
I gave my soul, my one and all
And still I blew it Well I love you so much, I love you so hard
It's like I don't have a name
And still my love is not enough
And I'm to blame Look at me now, I'm a wreck
I'm down on my knees, everyone knows You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful Now I know everybody goes
Through a little hell sometimes
But it's a sin, the shape you left me in
When you kissed me goodbye You took my heart, tore it all apart
And I took your medicine, yeah
You got no soul, me no self-control
Here I go again Look at me now, I'm a wreck
I'm down on my knees, now everyone knows You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful Yes you are Here we go You know my love I'm giving up
I just can't do it, woah You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful
You're so god damn beautiful
