Tell me your stories, write down your secrets
And play this music as loud as can be
Get me a sandwich, buy me some hot tea
And sing this song as loud as can beTeach me poker, dance with me slowly
And play this music as loud as can be
Open the window, drag down the curtains
And sing this song as loud as can beI live on the moon like a cartoon
Maybe I can see myself in you
Yes, I want to see myself in youOh, it is so great, no it's not
Yes, it is all great, it happens to everyone
If you think about it starts at a young ageTell me your stories, write down your secrets
And play this music as loud as can be
Get me a sandwich, buy me some hot tea
And sing this song as loud as can beTeach me poker, dance with me slowly
And play this music as loud as can be
Open the window, drag down the curtains
And sing this song as loud as can beJumping in the pool, swimming in the cold
I ain't gonna swim at the speed of sound
I ain't gonna climb no walls no, noIt will take more than a day to change
It will take more than a thousand pens and papers
To let go, to grow so much crapTell me your story, write down your secret
Buy me a sandwich, get me some hot tea
Speak in your language, turn off the TVMake me a draw and cut me wash-rabbit
Send me a postcard, write me a letter
And sing this song as loud as we can beI'm a black eyed raccoon working from the moon
I look back and all I did was blank
Not there, never thereIt was all a dream, a brain fantasy
Too much hope tricking me
Drawing smiles on my face
Drawing your face on my face, I miss youTell me your stories, write down your secrets
And play this music as loud as can be
Get me a sandwich, buy me some hot tea
And sing this song as loud as can beTeach me poker, dance with me slowly
And play this music as loud as can be
Open the window, drag down the curtains
And sing this song as loud as can be
And sing this song as loud as can be
And sing this song as loud as can be
