

Cold Sun (Epidemic Reign, Part IV)

Edge of Sanity

(Epidemic Reign Part 4)

(03:41) - Gazing at the sky colred with a gelam yet unseen. Birds no longer fly.
It's not a dream this blinding beam.
(03:42) - Panic, someone realized. Everything is iced the manic depression of the centuries- The world is soon devastated With ease. (03:43) - The temperature decreases. Watch the frozen sean, as my pulse go down. The king has lost its crown. (03:44) - Cold sun, will never shine (*) (03:45) - Freezing clouds, ready to fall. Killing us all.
Time after time I hear prophets that yell, We've got life for sale. Children (now) mentally deformed. Remember the sun and how it warmed. A natural system is wasted. Earth saw no grace, dead. (03:47) - Everything is captured in capsules of ice.
Still I wonder will they all awake in paradise? Eyes of ice cannot see frozen souls unable too flee. (03:48) - The maze of my existence, there's no resistance. Finally I leave this shell, rotting soul, I can feel the smell .... Of hell. Terminal end. My final peace, I descend. Everything is left to infest, but even the maggots will rest.
Cold sun.
