A Better Believer

Volbeat

Let her be, she belongs to me
And the moment comes
When I no longer know your name
A lonely maiden stands beyond infernal fire
A prince awaits his destiny for all time
Oh baby darling, you will see
Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feast
Reborn by the power of the darkness face
A rebirth of his lover to avenge his hate
Oh baby darling, you will see
Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feast
Heaven betrayed you
They said that her soul could not be saved
A better believer
The blood, his life, his sword sacrificed the cross
Returning with a hunger by the power of love
Oh baby darling, you will see
Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feast
Heaven betrayed you
They said that her soul could not be saved
A better believer
Let her be, she belongs to me
And the moment comes
When I no longer know your name
A lonely maiden stands beyond infernal fire
A prince awaits his destiny for all time
Oh baby darling, you will see
Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feast
Reborn by the power of the darkness face
A rebirth of his lover to avenge his hate
Oh baby darling, you will see
Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feast
Heaven betrayed you
They said that her soul could not be saved
A better believer
Let her be, she belongs to me
And the moment comes
When I no longer know your name
