J-A-I-N

J-A-I-N Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together
Every day, every time There's a street and here we are
We are people make the world how it's going down
So we walked into your lives
No one look deep in the eyes
Except you, take my smile
That's the only thing I have Hope you're fine
Hope you're great
Hope you're not alone in this town
Hope you have good friend to talk
Hope you will soon find a job
Now you smile right back at me
You see that is what I need
Loving, hoping get for free
I'm gonna need it
I'm gonna use it
I'm gonna need it
I'm gonna use it
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together
Try to keep up around

Try to keep up in a road
Try to make it better, better together You have dreams, too many in a depress of society
For my hair, far to rare stuff
Stop watching TV
I'll go outside, I'll walk some more
To see what is next to me
And I saw you and then I knew
How your smile can give some peace
Hope you love
Hope you're strong
Hope you will not get it wrong
Stop your bullshit, then make freak
Love is hard but it's unique I'm gonna need it
I'm gonna use it
I'm gonna need it
Yeah, I'm gonna use it
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
Try to keep up around
Try to keep up in a road
