WonderLove

Kris Bowers

How can be
Can it be I awake to a dream?
In the dark I search for you
For you love no words will doIt's something in the voice of your eyes
Something like a dove as it flies
And as I try
The wonders of the world all pass me by
And all i seem to see is you and I
The spotted lands, the stones that stand
Castles by the sea
Or how a child just knows
Love's all we need
Day's go by and I ask why
Yet the questions leave
So here I'll stay, and wonder dand and night
I'll wonder how my love
Came to me
Came to me
Came to me
I wonder, love
WonderloveI'm going down to the deepest trench
Or building stairs to a star
Make the earth twice by hand
All just so you know I can
It's going down to the deepest trench
Or building stairs to a star
Make the earth twice by hand
All just so you know I amIt's all within the warmth of your laugh
And I'll find the words, even if they're my last
And while I try
The wonders of the world all pass me by
And all I seem to see if you IThe Spotted lands, the stones that stand
Castles by sea
Or how a Child just knows
Love's all we need
Day's go by and I ask why
Yet the questions leave
So here I'll stay and wonder day and night
I'll wonder how my love

Came to me
Came to me
Came to me
I wonder, love
Wonderlove
