

Always Yours

Ruth

I pledge to You, let my words be true
And everyday I sing, bring glory to Your name
Cause Im always Yours, wanna be always Yours
Wanna be YoursDont wanna fool no one, to think that Im something
'Cause without You, Lord, Im nothing at all
But Im always Yours, wanna be always Yours
Wanna be YoursLook around, and nothings real now
But the price that You paidI just found out that life is just loose ends
So Im holding on to Your promises
That Im always Yours, wanna be always Yours
Wanna be YoursDont wanna fool no one, to think that Im something
'Cause without You, Lord, Im nothing at allLook around, nothings real now
But the price that You paid, that You paidCause its out of my hands, its out of my hands
Its out of my hands, its out of my hands
Its out of my hands, its out of my hands
Out of my hands, on this I stand, on this I stand
