

Light of Day, Sense of Life

Light of day, sense of life

Music and Lyrics by: Charly Sahona

It came one night and blew
The secret words of a magic spell .
Caught by surprise I felt far away,
In a world of bliss
I let the beauty come right in
And just embraced it.
Light of day, sense of life.
You are
The dreams when I sleep,
The thoughts I have.
Can't let the reason hold the reins.
Life could be useless without this hex that
Fills us and kills us ,
It burns, creates
A sense of purpose .
I'll never escape from the grip
That makes me feel alive.
Light of day, sense of life.
You are
What fights the dark every night.
I'm your willing slave.
