Calling All Hearts

Diamond Rio

To the father and the son
Who never talk, come back home
To the husband and the wife
Who are both at fault, come back homeForget the past and start again
Face to face and make amendsCalling out around the world
Every heartbroken boy, every lonely girl
Take what's right and forgive what's wrong
I'm calling all hearts to come back homeFrom the single mom trying to Make ends meet, daddy come back home
From the parents of the child
Living out on the street, baby come back homeForget the past and start again
Face to face and make amends
Can I hear an Amen? Can I hear an Amen?To every soul who's lost their way
Come back home
Yeah, the wait is over, today's the day
Come back home, come back homeOh, calling out around the world
Every heartbroken boy, every lonely girl
Take what's right and forgive what's wrong
I'm calling all hearts, I'm calling out around the worldEvery heartbroken boy, every lonely girl
Take what's right and forgive what's wrong
I'm calling all hearts to come back home

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/