When the Sky Bleeds He Will Come

Gary Numan

I thought I heard someone crying, thought I heard someone crying

And I thought it was me

I thought I heard someone screaming, thought I heard someone screamingI bleed for you. I bleed for, I bleed for

I, I, I need something to live for

Is this the end we're deserving?

I, I, I need something to live for

I'm on my knees and I'm beggingSomething's fallen from heaven, looks like a nightmare coming to haunt me

I don't believe it

Fallen from heaven, looks like a nightmare coming to save me

I don't believe itI thought I saw the sky bleeding, thought I saw the sky bleeding

And I thought I saw you

I thought I saw oceans burning, thought I saw oceans burning

And I thought I saw youI thought I saw angels falling

Beautiful, but still falling down

I bleed for you

I bleed for

I bleed forI, I, I gave you something to die for

And this is how you betray me?

I, I, I gave you something to die for

And this is how you repay me?Something's falling from heaven, looks like a nightmare coming to haunt me

I don't believe it

Falling from heaven, looks like a nightmare coming to take me

I don't believe it
