

The One

Auf Der Maur

What have we here?
Some kind of superman
Out mortal plans are beneath himHe aims much, much higher
You must get tired, Sir
Running from yourselfAnd while I'm here
I must tell youI am the one, the one, the one
Who'll follow you till' the end
I am the one, the one, the one
Who'll love you in the endAs we stumble
Together
We fall alone (alone, alone)As you crawl on your hands and knees
Running from yourself
You aim much, much higher (higher, higher)Cause' I am the one, the one, the one
Who'll follow you till' the end
I am the one, the one, the one
Who'll love you in the endAnd you are the one, and I have come
To love you in the end
I am the one, the one, the one
Who'll love you in the endHe is extraordinary
(Someone's gotta want him)
(Someone's gotta love him)
Who wants to be ordinary
(Someone's gotta want him)
(Someone's gotta love him)I am the one, the one, the one
Who'll follow you till' the end
I am the one, the one, the one
Who'll love you in the endAnd you are the one, and I have come
To love you in the end
And you are the one, and I have comeIn the end
In the end (x2)In the end
In the end
In the end
(Someone's gotta want him)
(Someone's gotta love him) (x2)In the end
In the end
In the end
