

Land of Nightmares

Rosanne Cash

When you look at me
As if you don't know me
And you talk to me
Like you've never met me I can leave you alone if I try
If I tried I could tell you goodbye If I wanted to
I could be long gone
If I wanted to
I could be long gone
Well I don't have to be nobody's fool
I won't make no exception of you
And I don't have to crawl
I can just walk away
No I don't have to crawl
I can just walk away You make your moves
As if I should follow you
You call on me
Just like I should run to you
I don't have to get down on my knees
I don't have to be present to please you
I don't have to crawl
I can just walk away
No I don't have to crawl
I can just walk away
