Dreamland

Wild Belle

Lift this veil of tears from your eyes
There's no more use in crying
A mighty cloud living in your skies
I shot it down last night

Stand up, make your dreams come true
Let me be the one for you
I'll break the chains that bind your hands
I'll take you to my dreamland

I can be your dreamland baby
Your sunshine
I can be your dreamland baby
Your paradise

Move together rhythm of the sea
Bodies in harmony
Magic moon, electricity
When you put your arms around me

Nightingale songs linger on and on
Always calling out to me
Follow me, I know you need
An island made of dreams

I can be your dreamland baby
Your sunshine
I can be your dreamland baby
Your paradise

Rivers flow with honey and gold
Drowning all out your misery
Anyway the white wind blows
You can come home to me

Shine on, may your dreams come true
Let me be the one for you
I'll be yours to the very end
I take you to my dreamland

I can be your dreamland baby
Your sunshine
I can be your dreamland baby
Your paradise
I can be your dreamland baby
Your sunshine
I can be your dreamland baby
Your paradise
I can be your dreamland baby
Your sunshine
I can be your dreamland baby
Your paradise
I can be your dreamland baby
Your sunshine
I can be your dreamland baby
Your paradise
