

Stormy Waters

Ash

Can't seem to turn aside
These thoughts are your or mine
I stayed up all night to see the dawnThe air was cold the sky was gray
With shades of light
I stayed up all night to see the dawnShe takes me under stormy waters
Cradles my head as sleep comes on
I'll drown in her eyes, dream in daylight
And wake again in her twilightShe left to write more silly words
She doesn't know
I stayed up all night to see the dawnAwake too long my skin will crawl
It's serpentine
I stayed up all night to see the dawnShe takes me under stormy waters
Cradles my head as sleep comes on
I'll drown in her eyes, dream in daylight
And wake again in her twilightAlarm bells ring it's nearly time
I'm to alive
I've been up all night to see the dawnDefenses dropped I'm so aware
Of passing time
I stayed up all time to see the dawnI'll be submerged in passing tides as senses
Fade into the night
I stayed to see the dawnShe takes me under stormy waters
Cradles my head as sleep comes on
I'll drown in her eyes, dream in daylight
And wake again in her twilight
