Panic

Panic

Panic If I'm really honest, I'd say I'm afraid
You gotta give me courage not to run away
You say that You'd only let me bend, not break
Don't let me break Everything inside of me is worn and frayed
But I'm holding promises the world won't shake
You will never leave me, You will not forsake me
I'm okay I will not stay down, no
I know You're here now
I won't freak out Don't panic, now
Don't panic, now Panic

Panic

Panic Even thought I'm torn, I'm gonna make this choice
To listen to Your whisper even through the noise
Darkness has no power when it hears Your voice
I'm not destroyed I will not stay down, no
I know You're here now
I won't freak out Don't panic, now
Don't panic, now I will not stay down, no
I know You're here now
I won't freak out Don't panic, now
Don't panic, now Panic

Panic

Panic No-Panic

Panic

Panic Though the sky falls
And the winds rage
Your power can't be tamed In the shadows
Through the valley
I will not be afraid Though the sky falls
And the winds rage
Your power can't be tamed In the shadows
Through the valley
I will not be afraid I will not stay down, no
I know You're here now
I won't freak out Don't panic, now
Don't panic-I will not stay down, no
I know You're here now

I won't freak outDon't panic, now
Don't panic, nowDon't panic, now
Don't panic, nowDon't panic, now
Don't panic, nowDon't panic, now
Don't panic, nowPanic
Panic
PanicDon't panic, now
Don't panic, nowDon't panic, now
Don't panic-
