

The Fight

The Dudes

We are born, we are born
We are born, we are born
We are born, we are born
We are born, we are born
We are born, we are born
We are born, we are born
We are born, we are born
We are born, we are born

We are born

Without a care

As we grow old

Become aware

As we grow tall

Begin to falter

We want to know ourselves

Give love to all

But we falter, yes, we are human

Yes, we anger, we feed the hunger

Yes, we push through, just me and you

We made it through the darkness to the light

Oh, how we fought yet still we won the fight

Oh, yes, we stand together

A fantasy for you and me

Though beauty lies in reality

No need to fear, the truth sets us free

We're all looking for love and harmony

But we falter and yes, we are flawed

As we play victim with such conviction

And we play bully, both you and me

We made it through the darkness to the light

Oh, how we fought yet still we won the fight

Oh, yes, we stand together

Took it day by day, worried we would fail

How we flailed and we wailed and we screamed in pain

Take it step by step, we could not forget

The wounds we felt, how we screamed for help

And the dark, dark nights when you held me tight

And we'd wait for light to rescue us

Oh, we were distressed, now we're nothing less

We are strong, we are blessed, we are united, yeah
We made it through the darkness to the light
Oh, how we fought yet still we won the fight
Oh, yes, we stand together
We made it through the darkness to the light
Oh, how we fought yet still we won the fight
Oh, yes, we stand together
