Anesthesia

Paint It Black

Like a flash of light in an endless night
Life is trapped between two black entities
'Cause when you trust someone illusion has begun
No way to prepare impendin' despair
(Despair)
Did one say so cruel just better to love and lose
Ignorance is bliss wish not knew your kiss
So many times been burned this lesson goes unlearned
Remember desire only fuels the fire
Liar
Liar
Betwixt birth and death every breath regret
I pity the living envy for the dead
Emotionally stunned in defense I'm numb
I'd rather not care then to be aware
Be scared
I don't need love
I don't need love

I don't need love
I don't need love
Was a thousand tears worth a single smile?
When you give an inch will they take a mile?
Longin' for the past but dreadin' the future
If not being used well then you're a user and a loser, I
World renowned failure at both death and life
Given nothingness purgatory blight
To run and hide a cowardly procedure
Options exhausted except for anesthesia
Anesthesia, I
I don't feel anythin' anythin'
I don't feel anythin' anythin'
Well I don't feel anythin' anythin'
Well I don't feel anythin' anythin' anythin' anythin'
No
{I don't feel anythin' anythin'
I don't feel anythin' anythin' anythin' anythin'}
