Motherfucker

Blownload

Come on and take walk with me!
Come on down, man, take a good look around.
We let our people sleep on the ground.
Complacent fools! Sit back. Watch the news.
The furthest thing from your mind now is change.
See the homeless you say that it's not what it seems... to be!
Smell the stench of misfortune and greed that they bring... Oh oh!
City on fire. Two times as tired.
You can't afford to turn your back again.
Somebody's lyin' when the rents get higher then...
Still the furthest thing from your mind now is still change.
