Hero

Atb

Everybody wants to be the hero
Everybody else to see them drown
Sometimes when the world seems sad and gray
I just wanna pull these curtains downYou're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you when you're gone
You're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you, I will not forget you when you're goneIf I ever find my way to zero
I will try to hold you underground
And if ever I should see your face
I will try to pull these curtains downYou're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you when you're gone
You're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you, I will not forget you when you're goneEverybody wants to be the hero
Everybody else to see them drown
Sometimes when the world seems sad and gray
I just wanna pull these curtains downYou're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you when you're gone
You're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you, I will not forget you when you're goneYou're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you when you're gone
You're my hero, you're my hero
I will not forget you, I will not forget you when you're gone
