

Tar Beach (2009 Remastered Version)

Limahl

Living in the city can be tough on you.
Got to get away once in a while.
Hope I'll see you when the day is through
Ready for a change of style.
So in the heat don't be shy -
Use your imagination
Now it's complete.
Sunshine and heat
Surround you on tar beach
I will meet you there
On tar beach.
Where you can lose
Those city blues
I will meet you there
On tar beach.
Sunshine and heat
Surround you on tar beach So many situations
From day to day
The circle is turning so fast.
And who is loving who need I say
Tell me how long will it last.
So uncertain what the future holds
We never know what to expect.
Searching for that person we are told
Love will be its effect.
We hold the key to control our own destination
Turn it and you'll see.
Sunshine and heat surround you on tar beach
Sunshine and heat surround you on tar beach
Sunshine and heat surround you on tar beach
I will meet you there.
