Enough

Sarahbeth Taite

Donâ€™t you dare go walking outside
Without your face paint, painted just right
God for bid he should see you tonight
Looking like that looking like that

Youre thinking
You better wear the low cut dress
Less is more is what the magazine says
Cosmopolitan says heâ€™ll only like you
Looking like that looking like that

Wiping off the lipstick and the fear
Strip it down and stand in front of that mirror
And let me hear me hear you say

Iâ€™m enough no matter if he likes me
Iâ€™m enough no matter what theyâ€™re telling me
Iâ€™m enough as long as I believe
Iâ€™m enough enough enough
Had enough of not living in my own skin
Had enough of not liking what Iâ€™m gonna wear
Wondering if Iâ€™m ever gonna be enough enough enough enough enough

Back seat of his rusty old shovel
You really like him but you just ainâ€™t ready
And you know if you wonâ€™t, another girl will Give it up give it up

You know it doesnâ€™t matter
Best to let him know
Donâ€™t you be afraid to tell a man,
You wanna go home and tell yourself

Iâ€™m enough no matter if he likes me
Iâ€™m enough no matter what heâ€™s telling me
Iâ€™m enough as long as I believe
Iâ€™m enough enough enough
Had enough of not living in my own skin
Had enough of not liking what Iâ€™m gonna wear

Wondering if Iâ€™m ever gonna be enough enough enough

Enough of this feeling
Like Iâ€™m less than Enough of this reaching
For perfection

Iâ€™m enough no matter if he likes me
Iâ€™m enough no matter what theyâ€™re telling me
Iâ€™m enough as long as I believe
Iâ€™m enough enough enough

Iâ€™m enough no matter if he likes me
Iâ€™m enough no matter what theyâ€™re telling me
Iâ€™m enough as long as I believe
Iâ€™m enough enough enough
Had enough of not living in my own skin
Had enough of not liking what Iâ€™m gonna wear

Look into the mirror
Tell yourself again enough enough enough

Lyrics Submitted by Savannah Culver

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/