

I Shoulda Listened

Billy Dean

Tonight, I'm as lonely as it gets
Wish I could say I've no regrets
But I didn't realize back then
 Just exactly what I had
 Now I do and it's so sad
Ooh, I miss you badI shoulda listened
 To the beating of my heart
 When I held you close
 To the words I said when I said
"I'll never let you go"I shoulda listened
 To the voice inside my head
 That said, "It's love"
 Now all I hear
 Is the sound of falling tears
I shoulda listenedMy mind, doesn't hesitate to say
 "Oh, you fool, you let her slip away"
 But I just don't want to hear the truth
 So I try to cover my ears
 But I'm coming in louder and clear
Wish I had when you were hereI shoulda listened
 To the beating of my heart
 When I held you close
 To the words I said when I said
"I'll never let you go"I shoulda listened
 To the voice inside my head
 That said, "It's love"
 Now all I hear
 Is the sound of falling tears
I shoulda listenedOh, I shoulda listened
 To the voice inside my head
 That said, "It's love"
 Now all I hear
 Is the sound of falling tears
I shoulda listenedYes, all I hear
 Is the sound of falling tears
I shoulda listenedI shoulda listened
 (I shoulda listened)
 I shoulda listened
