

Hey Stranger

Nicki Bluhm and The Gramblers

I've been coming up with one ton of words to describe what a jive it was when we met the first time

    Running out all my line trying to find me a fish to hook that I wanna make mine

    Never thought a swimmer would suit my interest but nothing ever goes like you plan

    We all know how every fish story endsChorus:

    It'll never be same,

    Since your sweet love came and went

    It's going to be a game changer

    All the places that we never got to get

    Hey stranger,

    It'll never be the sameI've been making my way through a drunk dark morning

    Hoping it was just a bad dream

    Rubbing my eyes through a roughed-up past-time

    Saddest thing that you ever have seen

    Thought of being alone for the rest of my life

    About scared me to death

    I wake up in the middle of the night in a cold, cold sweatChorus:

    It'll never be same,

    Since your sweet love came and went

    It's going to be a game changer

    All the places that we never got to get

    Hey stranger,

    It'll never be the same
