

For the Love of You

Boyz II Men

Well, well, well, well
Driftin' on a memory
Ain't no place I'd rather be than with you, yes
Loving you well, well, well Day will make the way for night
And all we need is candle light
And a song, soft and long
Well, well, well like to be
We're alone with a love unlike no other
Sad to see, a new horizon slowly comin' into view I wanna be living for the love of you
All that I'm giving is for the love of you Lovely as a ray of sun
That touches me when the morning comes
Feels good to me
Well, my lovin' me, my lovin'
Smoother than a gentle breeze
Blowin' through my mind with ease soft as can be
When you're lovin' me, when you're lovin' me I love to be
Ridin' the waves of your love enchanted with your touch
It seems to me
We can sail together in and out of mystery I wanna be living for the love of you, oh yes I do
All that I'm giving is for the love of you
I know that I'm living for the love of you, oh yes I do
All that I'm giving, giving is for the love of you Paradise and Heaven things can't feel insecure again
You're the key, this I see
Now and then I lose my way
Using words I try to say what I feel
Yeah, this is so real, so real I might as well, sign my name
On a card that could say it better, time will tell
'Cause it seems that I've done just about
All that I can do, I can do I wanna be livin' for the love of you, oh yes I do
All that I'm givin' is for the love of you
I wanna be livin' for the love of you, oh yes I do
All that I'm giving is for the love of you
Each and every day I'm livin' for the love of you
Said that I'm giving for the love of you, baby
