

It's A Deal

Janis Joplin

Ooh, she's my baby, I'll tell you
Just exactly what I used to do
I will leave, just to leave you alone
Baby, baby, when I go home Love you baby, I don't think I will Say the words but the doubts come still
It's true, baby, that I want you to stay
But the fact remains you got to pay your will Pay your will, yeah, yeah, yeah Well, I made you cry, hang your head
Life here was just smart and vain
With you guys, baby, and you've gotta see
When you're alone you want to make a deal Well now, love you baby, I don't think I will Say the words but the doubts come still
It's true, baby, that I want you to stay
But the fact remains you got to pay your will Pay your will, yeah, yeah I wouldn't hurt but you can feel
I'm leaving withdrawn, say it's a deal
You may see inside my head
I love you, baby, but you're far away Love you baby, I don't think I will Say the words but the doubts come still
It's true, baby, that I want you to stay
But if, fact remains you got to pay your will Pay your will, yeah, yeah, yeah Pay your will, now yeah, yeah
Pay your will, yeah
Oh, yeah, oh
