

Suitcase

Steve Moakler

Everybody wants a house on the hill,
Everybody wants a ski boat,
Everybody wants a big promotion at the end of the year,
Everybody wants a swimming pool and a big back yard,
A little more vacation and a brand new car
Chorus
But I'd be fine watching you watch the sun go down,
With your head on my chest and a blanket on the ground,
Cause everybody wants to chase the rainbow and find a pot of gold
Hoping for a suitcase full of money, but all I want is you honey
It would be pretty cool if I could buy you anything you wanted
And if we won the lottery no I wouldn't complain
We all want something that we lost back
Wish we could make a few changes to the past
But when I'm with you I'm only thinking one thing
Chorus
But I'd be fine watching you watch the sun go down,
With your head on my chest and a blanket on the ground,
Cause everybody wants to chase the rainbow and find a pot of gold
Hoping for a suitcase full of money, but all I want is you honey
If I had one more time to make you smile that's what I'd do
Cause I'm betting it all girl I could prove it to you
Chorus
But I'd be fine watching you watch the sun go down,
With your head on my chest and a blanket on the ground,
Cause everybody wants to chase the rainbow and find a pot of gold
Hoping for a suitcase full of money, but all I want is you honey
