What Have You Done

Anouk

Headed for the heartache
You took my love and broke it
Torn it and provoked it
As I trusted
Your charming little ways
And all those lies of praise
What have you done
What have you done
It has been a long and crazy day
After I unfolded your mistakes
And that pretty evil face
How did you trick me
Into loving you
You're like poison on my soul
Was it worth it
You pushed it way too far
Speading rumours about my heart
Hey it ain't right
No it ain't right
It has been a long and crazy day
After I unfolded your mistakes
And that pretty evil face

And I will blame it all on you
For I will never dance again
The way I did when you were my man
Don't be calling me
You're messing with my head
I'm so angry but instead
I still want more
Inspite of all the lies
The phony alibis you've given my heart
It has been a long and crazy day
After I unfolded your mistakes
And that pretty evil face
And I will blame it all on you
For I will never dance again
It has been a long and crazy day
After I unfolded your mistakes

And that pretty evil face
And I will blame it all on you
For I will never dance again
The way I did when you were my man
