Freak Magnet

L7

Liars, losers, coming at me
What I need is sanctuary
Minding my own business, getting in my face
Violating my personal spaceFreak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appealSomething about you is so not right
Nightmare, nightmare in the daylight
Asking for my number, you wanna give me a call
But I've got your message written on the wallFreak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appealAlways bugging me, why don't you get a clue?
'Cause I don't want to talk to you
I know that look in your eyes, I've seen it before
I've given you all of my change
But you want something moreFreak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appealFreak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
