

Freak Magnet

L7

Liars, losers, coming at me
What I need is sanctuary
Minding my own business, getting in my face
Violating my personal space
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
Something about you is so not right
Nightmare, nightmare in the daylight
Asking for my number, you wanna give me a call
But I've got your message written on the wall
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
Always bugging me, why don't you get a clue?
'Cause I don't want to talk to you
I know that look in your eyes, I've seen it before
I've given you all of my change
But you want something more
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
Freak magnet, jerk appeal
