Echoes

Klaxons

Send out a sound for the wood between the worlds
Gently repeat as the boundaries start to swirl
Keep to the call that is twice now liminal
It's not the same where the trails lead to the outer regions
Echoes from the other world turn horizons into endless ever present
Echoes. Many other worlds true horizon starts to turn
Numberless names with the force of the ninth wave
Keep to the call that's repeated in the outer regions
Echoes from the other world turn horizons into endless ever present
Echoes. Many other worlds true horizon takes a turn

Echoes reflect and change they serenade
Echoes reflect and change they serenade
Echoes from the other world turn horizons into endless ever present
Echoes. Many other worlds true horizon makes the endless ever present
Echoes into other worlds true horizons into endless ever present
Echoes. Many other worlds true horizon starts to turn
Echoes reflect and change they serenade
Echoes reflect and change they serenade
They serenade
Serenade
