Not Everyone Knows

Kris Kristofferson

Not everyone knows how sweet your kiss is
Not everyone knows how warm your hand is
How soft your lips are and when you like to take your time
How sweet your love flows not everyone knows [piano]Not everyone knows what your favorite song is Not everyone knows what your idea of wrong is
The things that you laugh at and the things that make you cry
Your highs and your lows not everyone knows
What's everybody sayin' doesn't matter to much the best part of love doesn't show

The feelin' we feel when we touch is such we're the only ones who should know
What's between you and me is ours together
It's easy and free and keeps gettin' better
We're not tryin' to hide no anything no everything shows
What makes it grow not everyone knows
Not everyone knows your highs and your lows not everyone knows
Not everyone knows
