

Metamorphosis

Methods Of Mayhem

A seed become a flower, a cocoon becomes a butterfly winter becomes spring time, and love becomes a child the clouds become the rain the sad becomes the pain inside cryin' becomes a game, yeah, yeah, and smoke becomes the flame, Im a father to my son, yeah, Im a son to my father you cannot dismiss I'm living proof of metamorphosis Times are changin' minds are re-arrangin it doesn't matter if your black Buddhist or asian we all possess the power, concrete like a tower so delicate seed becomes a flower!

Times are changin' minds are re-arrangin it doesn't matter if your black Buddhist or asian we all possess the power, concrete like a tower so delicate seed becomes a flower! A boy becomes a man, a song becomes a memory of a time in your life, a river becomes an ocean, and life becomes undone. Feelings become emotion, a marriage becomes a devotion for the rest of your life, the boredom becomes the same, and guilt turns into pain.. Im a father to my son, yeah, I'm a son to my father you cannot dismiss I'm living proof of metamorphosis Times are changin' minds are re-arrangin it doesn't matter if your black

Buddhist or asian we all possess the power, concrete like a tower so delicate seed becomes a flower!

Times are changin' minds are re-arrangin it doesn't matter if your black Buddhist or asian we all possess the power, concrete like a tower so delicate seed becomes a flower! Im a father to my son, yeah, Im a son to my father you cannot dismiss I'm living proof of metamorphosis Times are changin' minds are re-arrangin it doesn't matter if your black Buddhist or asian we all possess the power, concrete like a tower so delicate seed becomes a flower!

Times are changin' minds are re-arrangin it doesn't matter if your black Buddhist or asian we all possess the power, concrete like a tower so delicate seed becomes a flower!
