

Chikages' Happy Hole

Global Citizen

i've fallen in love with chikage we've been having a mock love affair i've never quite seen what she looks like but for me, she's always 'been there' we meet everyday in shibuya her own place called the 'happy hole' in a cubicle made out of plywood we act out the very same roles she has the headshot of an actress with beautiful long shiny hair a cartoon body of mens' room graffiti with all of her 'best bits' laid bare she has the greatest affection for me giving me pleasure is what she lives for i've the greatest affection for her the pleasure she gives, i'd die for wear headset for communication drop my pants, put my 'piece' through the ply hold on for life to the handrail my head rolls back facing the sky her voice scatters assaults on my senses my senses of sight, sound and touch she's synthesizing inside of my head while she's taking good care of my crouch it is a marriage sent from the future with new meaning to 'love on the rocks' i've no other cares in this world whilst i'm standing here just in my socks a marriage sent from the future
with new meaning to 'love on the rocks' call it virtual sex if that's what suits ya but for chis' happy hole, i've the hots
