I'll Lay Low

Rosi Golan

I was the last to know
You weren't coming back
I'm gonna miss the way you laugh
All you are is now a photograph
Trapped in a frame up on the dashboard
Of my car
And I look at it
When I drive
And say goodbye
For now
I'll lay low
I'll lay low
I'll lay low
Alone
Every memory cuts right through the heart of me
It's all too soon
All I can see is you
Every corner of every room of this house

It's all around me
What can I do
But give in to you
I'll lay low
I'll lay low
I'll lay low
Alone
I'm not alright
I've been here too long
But you won't let me go
So
I'll lay low
I'll lay low
I'll lay low
Alone
I was the last to know
You weren't coming back
