Smooth

D'angelo

How do you retain your cool?
Seems you love breaks all the rules
You may think that I'm a pro
But I can never seem to keep my control
How can you stand to take things so slow
Look at you, you're so smooth
When I'm around you, I can't keep my cool
Look at you, you're so smooth
When I'm around you, I can't keep my cool
I'm so used to getting what I want
When I want it, and where I want it
But in your field I'm inexperienced
So inexperienced, baby I'm delirious
Look at you, you're so smooth
When I'm around you, I can't keep my cool
Look at you, you're so smooth
When I'm around you, I can't keep my cool
Look at you, you're so smooth
When I'm around you, I can't keep my cool
Look at you, you're so smooth
When I'm around you, I can't keep my cool
I can't keep my cool
When you're around, I won't be the fool
You may that I don't know
But all the things I want are in my control
