

Thumbtacks In My Marrow

Asaf Avidan

Wait, don't stop
You have gotten to me at last
I know I broke your fall but I cant repent the pastIt hurts
Thumbtacks in my marrow
I rest on old familiar runes that I cant recallLeave a hint
Of your broken image
Before I shed this crackled glass and take the final leapInto the womb of all rusted feathers
And I'll see you when I am born into your world
AgainAnd so I fall
And so I follow the way back home
And so I follow the way back home
