She's Always In My Hair

D'angelo

Whenever I feel like giving up
Whenever my sunshine turns to rain
Whenever my hopes and dreams
Are aimed in the wrong direction
She's always there telling me how much she cares
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
Whenever I feel like not too great at all
Whenever I'm all alone
And even if I hit the wrong notes
She's always in my boat
She's always there telling me how much she cares
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
Maybe I'll marry her, maybe I won't
Maybe I will not, let me tell you, baby
If I was a gigolo all my life
She'd still be there telling me
Just how much she really cares
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
Listen, whenever I feel like giving up
Whenever my sunshine turns to rain
Whenever my hopes and dreams
Are aimed in the wrong direction
She's always there telling me
Just how much she cares
Tell me, baby, always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
She's always in my hair

She's always in my hair
She's always in my hair, my hair
Maybe I'll marry her, maybe I will not
Let me tell you, if I was a gigolo all my life
She'd still be there because she knows
She thinks I'm hot, that woman thinks I'm hot
What she knows, yeah
I feel like giving up, I feel like giving up
My sunshine turns to rain, yeah
My hope, my dream, drift in wrong direction
She's always, she's always in my hair
Woman, she's in my hair
My hair, that woman, she's in my hair
That woman, she's in my hair
My hair, my hair
She's in my hair
