

Mr Blue Skies

Matt White

HEY MR BLUE SKIES
Hey Mr blue skies always up there waiting
You got a million reasons not to let me in
But I wish you would
Hey Mr blue skies
Have I forgotten you number
Wanted to thank you for been there
Im nervous and am overdrawn
The negative is pouring on
Its pouring on I need a light
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn our bright
Hey Mr. Blue skies dont give up on me
All I need is one more chance
Change it all, Ill change my ways, change my ways
Hey Mr. Blue skies tell you what Im thinking
If you could only read between the lines
Of what is real and what Im faking
Im nervous and am overdrawn
The negative is pouring on
Its pouring on I need a light
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn our bright
I need a light
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn our bright, bright
Hey Mr Up there waiting
Conversations with the clouds
Choosing life or death
Deciding what could make or break
A broken man
Cause Im nervous and am overdrawn
The negative is pouring on
Pouring on I need a light
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn ooour bright
I need a light
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn our briiiight
I need a light
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn our bright, bright
I need a light
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn our bright.
I need a light (And I)
I promise you will burn our bright.
