Surrender

Blake Lewis

I'd see you in a crowd
A million people loud
You try to hide
But something make you call out
I gotcha fallin' hard
You make me drop my guard
We try to fight it
But something's written in the stars
I just can't shake this feelin'
It's just like a bullet and it's killin', killin' me
Two hearts that need some healin'
Don't know what you do to, do to me
It's time to surrender
'Cuz I can't remember
A love that was strong enough
To not run away, yeah
It's time to surrender
I'm givin' in to ya
You're givin' in to me
So give it away, yeah
Everybody needs somebody
Reachin' out, so take it from me
Everybody take this from me
Find the one surrender, give it away
Stuck in another life
I swear I've known you twice
If this is destiny
Time for us to roll the dice
Your heart was Novocaine
Cut off to numb the pain
You took me in
And nothing's ever been the same
I just can't shake this feelin'
It's just like a bullet and it's killin', killin' me
Two hearts that need some healin'
Don't know what you do to, do to me
It's time to surrender
'Cuz I can't remember

To not run away, yeah
It's time to surrender
I'm givin' in to ya
You're givin' in to me
So give it away, yeah
Everybody needs somebody
Over me
Something's comin' over me
There's no tellin' what we'll be
But something's comin' over me
Over me
To not run away, yeah
It's time to surrender
I'm givin' in to ya
You're givin' in to me
So give it away, yeah
Reachin' out, so take it from me
Surrender
