

Out The Hood

B2K

Yeah oh

Listen baby See there's this girl that I know and she's more, yea

More than average, she's a perfect ten

Don't really know how to handle someone who Wants to put her on, make her number one She's so used to that mentality, got to hustle hard

Riding in the streets, that's so crazy

Somebodys baby going through these things

But I've got love for you and I wanna show you girl Your friends don't like me for real though

They say I'm no good for you

They're jealous 'cuz you finally found a real love I'm tryin' to take you out the hood, show you something good

Make sure you're okay, everything is straight

You're a superstar, you deserve it all, more than just a ghetto queen I wanna put you in some diamonds, take you to the islands

Show you everything you ain't never seen

Just let me take you out the hood, babe

Girl let me change your world for you, babe, take you out the hood Tell me have you ever seen, seen

White sand on a private beach?

Tell me did you wanna go somewhere

Somewhere you've seen on TV? Well girl I've got the means to take you anywhere

So don't let your friends cause you to be afraid

They're just lonely and you're the only, only thing that matters to me

Even my homies, they gettin' on me

'Cuz they see they're to do even me, babe Your friends don't like me for real though

They say I'm no good for you

They're jealous 'cuz you finally found a real love I'm tryin' to take you out the hood, show you something good

Make sure you're okay, everything is straight

You're a superstar, you deserve it all, more than just a ghetto queen I wanna put you in some diamonds, take you
to the islands

Show you everything you ain't never seen

Just let me take you out the hood, babe

Girl let me change your world for you, babe, take you out the hood Where I'm going you'll be coming

Ain't no limit if you want me

Baby all you gotta do is ask me

If you call me girl, I'm coming

So let me show you something better

Babe and take out the hood I'm tryin' to take you out the hood, show you something good

Make sure you're okay, everything is straight

You're a superstar, you deserve it all, more than just a ghetto queen I wanna put you in some diamonds, take you
to the islands

Show you everything you ain't never seen
Just let me take you out the hood, babe
Girl let me change your world for you, babe, take you out the hoodBaby, take you out the hood girl
Baby, take you out the hood girl
Baby, take you out the hood girl
Baby, take you out the hood girl
