

Love and War (feat. John Fogerty)

Brad Paisley

he was 19
and landed in background scared and all alone lost a leg and a girlfriend before he got home and they say all is fair in love and war but that aint true is wrong they ship you out to die for us forget about you and you don't he was 19 and 68
and after all this time that broken boy is now a broken man waiting in a va line they say holy spirit love him more
but that ain't true is wrong theu ship you out to die for us forget about you and you don't and nightmares and he's running scared far from home and wakes up from a nightmare kissing another one he's still not home they're condecorated heroes and pins some medals on their chest give him a tiny little pigeon could we do much less tjeu say all is fair in love and war
but that ain't true is wrong
they ship you out to die for us
forget about you and you don't they say all is fair in love and war
but that aint true is wrong
they ship you out to die for us
forget about you and you don't tjeu say holy spirit love him more but that ain't true is wrong
they ship you out to die for us and forget about you and you don't Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>