Hold On, Here It Go (Instrumental Version)

RJD2

alright now, be my one two uh, and it go
all rough and rugged when you dressing for mass and my attitude is "fuck it" cause motherfuckers love it
"Fuck It!"
Cause motherfuckers love it x2
I got a, chip on my shoulder the size of a golden nugget in Vegas fucking being famous
I came to get the buzz
I came to get the buzz
I came to get the buzzHold on, here it go x8Never had a lot and still we made it work man
Now we on the road like dollar cabs and church vans
Write about experiences from the first-hand
To judge a book by its appearance might be the worst plan
My momma raised me well def my momma made me a blessed man
My momma told me give them hell, don't be a yes mam
Yes mam, that I do
I got them shook like big-foot timber roofs
I get them outie like something and tootaloos I'm from Atlanta like chick-fil-a's and hootie-hoos
I was brought up on booty shaking soul food
And I was taught to let bass quake in old school
My grandma got a reincheck on alba math
If you ever in Atlanta you should grip a slab
I spent my summer doing dishes and my uncle asked:
"you working hard or you working smart" then he would laugh
'Cause he knew that lunch brunch was busting my ass
Said its more important do it right than do it fast Take six months to build a Rolls Royce Thirteen hours to build a Toyota, do the math
I did the dishes already, but y'all can get a glass And toast to the moment and hope this time will last But there's the threatbacks and there'll be set backs I'm trying to make it in America, respect that That I too Sing America Langston Hughes that I'm from the South where the bible belts and the blues at Out in Atlanta City where the house of blues at

If life is a gamble this way you lose that Hold on to these words nigga don't lose that you feel that fire in your gut, you got to use that don't just be sitting on your butt, you got to move that They said i'm the one, I got to prove that (And it go)
all rough and rugged when you dressing for mass
and my attitude is "fuck it" cause motherfuckers love it
"Fuck It!"
Cause motherfuckers love it x2
I got a, chip on my shoulder the size of a golden nugget in Vegas
fucking being famous
I came to get the buzz
I came to get the buzz
I came to get the buzzHold on, here it go x8
