Reframed (Every Single Failure)

HEADSTONES

Well, I'll be leaving now, I thank you for the trouble
Your compassion seems to even up the score
Your ability to ridicule has left things at a stand still
And I don't find it peculiar anymoreAnd I didn't drive here but I know that I was driven
And I trust that you would know to overcome
Just tick away the precious seconds of this minute
That have left us both alone and fucking numbI'm amazed that I haven't caved
And I still have faith in myself today
I'm no stranger to misbehavior
Reframed every single failureThe promises we made weren't broken but they're fading
Neither one of us should be guilty or ashamed
It's just a word I heard maybe I don't remember
Somewhere along the line I misbehavedAnd I'm amazed that I haven't changed
With all the rage in the world today
And I'm no stranger to human nature
Reframed every single failureMissing pieces that are left out of the story
Painting over all the things we didn't like
It's got something to do with what makes us all tick
There's something there that eats us up insideI'm amazed that I haven't caved
And I still have faith in myself today
I'm no stranger to misbehavior
I've reframed every single failureI'm amazed that I haven't caved
And I still got faith in myself today
I'm no stranger to misbehavior
Reframed every single failure, every single failure
Every single failure, every single failure
