

Haul Away

Apostle of Hustle

Was a windless night
When you left the ship
    You never were
    A steady bold one
    I gave my hand
Ah but you did slipI'm a living man
    And your a cold one
    So haul away
Haul away from hereMy love's as fair
    As a girl can be
    My wedding ring
    Is a heavy gold one
    Now you lay alone
    In the deep dark sea
    I'm a living man
    And your a cold one
    So haul away
Haul away for homeThe morning brings
    Lord a fresh young breeze
    To fill our sails
    To end the doldrums
    Our lucky ship
    Speeds across the sea
    I'm a living man
    And your a cold one
    So haul away
    Haul away for home
