

Tanned

Vincent Liou

I'm on the next flight out
Moving back to the west coast
To bathe in sunlight and see the girls tanned gold
GoldThis love has turned into
Something I cannot deny
Lately I've been thinking of youI wanna run away
With your hand in mine
To see how far we go and lose track of time
TimeThis love has turned into
Something I cannot deny
Lately I've been thinking of youWoah-oh-woah-ohThis love has turned into Something I cannot deny
Lately I've been thinking of youWoah-oh-woah-oh
